

Christian Rivera

Hello my name is Christian Rivera, and I am a resident in the Hartford district. I took these photos to show people the color of Hartford which can be hard to see in the less populated areas of downtown. It shadows the north, south, east, west neighborhoods of Hartford. My perspective of Hartford, colorful and artistic, hopefully can mean something to you. My photos made me feel as if I'd accomplished my goal of bringing Hartford's color to life. I hope we can commence a new "renewal," which will help people STAY!
